

WIFE CONFRONTS AUSTIN ADAMS IN SEATTLE COURT

Unfrocked Priest Startled as She Appears to Fight Divorce.

SEATTLE, Wash., Dec. 14.—There was a sensation in court here today when Flora Adams, first wife of Henry Austin Adams, the unfrocked priest, suddenly made her appearance just as the divorce suit of the ex-pastor was called. Adams, who is known here as Vincent Harper, writer and Socialist, had no idea the woman had come on from the East to make a determined fight against him and he was the most surprised person in court.

Mrs. Adams, after her arrival here a few days ago, succeeded in keeping her presence secret, even from the newspapers.

Adams's second matrimonial partner, whom he calls his mystic soul mate, is in Victoria, B. C., hence there is little chance of the women meeting, at least for the present.

Adams, who is ill, was much agitated by the presence of Flora Adams.

Recently he has spent his time largely in Seattle writing for the magazines, and from this sort of work manages to eke out a living.

He still says it is his determination to remain here and continue his literary career. He is giving a series of historical Socialist lectures at present. His affiliations are with the members of Seattle Socialists only.

SUFFRAGETTES GO TO JAIL.

Five Arrested in London Chase Cells to Fines.

LONDON, Dec. 14.—Five of the female suffragists arrested for attempting to hold a meeting within the precincts of Parliament last night, resulting in an exciting scuffle with the police, were arraigned at a police court today and were sentenced to pay fines of £5 each, or in default to go to jail for a fortnight.

Following the precedent in the case of the earlier prosecutions, the women elected to go to prison.

LA TOURAINE SPOKEN.

SAIL ISLAND, N. S., Dec. 14.—The French liner La Touraine, from Havre for New York, was in communication by wireless with the Marconi station here when passing this point at 8 A. M. today. She will probably reach her dock about 8.30 A. M. Sunday.

WRECKED TRAINS TO STOP WORK AT MINE.

Coal Company Detectives Make Queer Charge Against Four Prisoners.

(Special to The Evening World.)
WILKESBARRE, Pa., Dec. 14.—Detectives of the Lehigh Valley Coal Company today arrested four young men on the charge of train wrecking, and they have been placed in jail to await a hearing. The prisoners are John Smink, John Tellege and Alexander and Felix Real.

It is charged that they are responsible for a number of wrecks which have occurred on the coal branches of the roads during several months, and that their incentive was a desire to prevent the delivery of coal cars at the breakers, so that there would be no work.
